English

I know that you are all working incredibly hard at your reading, spelling and handwriting and I am really proud of you all. I would really like you to have a go at using the BBC Bitesize website this week and try to do the grammar lessons for me. I will ask you what they are like when we talk next to see how you are finding them.

Writing

Talk for Writing Packs 1 and 2

Write about your favourite animal or pet using last week's project learning.

Alternatively, children can 'free write' – this is where they choose something that interests them to inspire their writing. They could write about a sport, write to their favourite author, write a set of instructions or write their own play script!

Project linked to Curriculum Learning

Watch this video from oak academy about light and share your learning in any way you choose – this could be in a poster, in a presentation or through art.

Maths

I know that lots of you are still working hard using your Power Maths activity books. Well done with this. I am adding some links in here for the White Rose Daily Maths lessons too, so you can have a change. They are really clear and good fun. You may need your parent to do the first one or two with you but after that I think it should be really easy for you to do these independently too. Let me know what you think of the lessons and I'll ask you about them when we speak this week.

KIM'S GAME

You will need: a tray and 20 small objects.

Place the objects on the tray and spend 2 minutes looking at them and touching them so you can remember everything that is there. Close your eyes while one of the objects is removed. Can you work out which one it was?

Can you take photos and let us play too?

Make it easier by using less objects.

Make it harder by covering the tray with a cloth and trying to list all of the objects.

Don't forget to tidy all your objects away!

@GS_Federation Thursday Challenge!

CLOVER HUNT

Everyone wants to find a four-leaf clover - they're supposed to be very lucky!

While on your walk, or in your garden, can you find one? Torn leaves don't count!

Then, if you do, you can press it (between heavy books) which will help you preserve it so you can keep it!

If you find any...share the luck with a photo!
