

Sicklinghall Community Primary School

THURSDAY 17TH OCTOBER 2019 OPEN MORNING

Join us at 9:30am for tea or coffee and a chat with the Executive Headteacher before enjoying a tour of the school starting at 10am - led by our Year 6 pupils. We look forward to meeting you.

Our small, vibrant school is set in extensive rural grounds close to Wetherby and outer Harrogate. The exciting curriculum ensures that all children develop the best life-skills alongside their academic and creative achievements. Our school is part of the Goldsborough and Sicklinghall Federation which allows our children and staff to work collaboratively to enhance their learning.

"Sicklinghall Primary School is a school where pupils are safe and feel safe. Behaviour is good. Pupils conduct themselves well at all times of the day, and relationships between different groups of pupils, and between adults and pupils, are very strong."
