English

This week is all about poetry.

Reading

You can find some amazing nursery rhymes on this link.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/school-radio/nursery-rhymes-a-to-z-index/z4ddgwx>

Will you find your favourite? Maybe you will find one you haven't heard before! Have fun singing along.

Challenges – Can you learn a new rhyme by heart? Can you draw a picture of your favourite rhyme? Or maybe make little puppets to act it out?

Michael Rosen Watch these poems being performed. Which one do you like the best? Why? What do they remind you of?

Writing

The poet Joshua Siegal won the Lollies book award. He writes some really funny poems and has quite a few of them on his website.

Could you bring one of your rooms to life? Or maybe even your garden? Write a poem about what they have to say. We would love to read them!

As always, if you would rather 'free write' – please do! Choose something that interests you to inspire your writing.

You could write about a sport, write to a friend or family member you haven't seen for ages, write a set of instructions, write your own playscript!

Spellings

Choose 7 spellings from the word list and practise them using your favourite strategies from the list, we know that at least 10 minutes a day works well. Can someone give you a test on Friday? Let us know your score!

A Classroom Speaks

The window says "welcome".
The door says "come in".
The whistle says "quiet".
The book says "begin".

The paper says "write"
and the snack says "yum yum".
The carpet is sighing
"please sit on your bum".

The test says "no way"
but the sticker says "try".
The pencil says "greetings",
the rubber "goodbye".

The paint says "clear up"
and the sink says "splish splosh".
The glue yells "yahoo!"
but the apron shouts "wash!".

The clock says "it's over".
The bell bellows "dash!"
and that is the end of the big classroom bash.

Whole School Project for all ages:

For the next few weeks we are going to be focusing on the continents. We have already learned a lot about Antarctica during Penguin Week, so this week you could choose to learn about Europe or Asia or both! - You can showcase your learning however you wish!

Here are some ideas to help you to focus your learning or you could come up with a list of your own questions that you want to investigate:

- This is a great song to help you learn the name of the continents, the chorus is very catchy! <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=K6DSMZ8b3LE>
- Where is this continent? Can you find it on a world map? Could you draw, paint or model your own world map? Can you name some countries that are part of this continent? Are there some cities you have heard of on this continent? There are lots of lovely blank maps here which might help <https://www.3dgeography.co.uk/blank-world-maps>
- You could explore the world with these pirate bunnies! <https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zvzd8xs/articles/z6vyf4j>
- Do you know anyone who has visited this continent? Could they tell you about it? What is the same as where we live? What is different? There are some videos which might help - Europe (France) <https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zyhp34j/articles/zhw7vk7> Asia (Shanghai) <https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zyhp34j/articles/zvrvjhw>
Barnaby Bear Norway <https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/clips/zcj6sbk>
- What plants and animals would I see on this continent? Could you draw them or tell us about their habitat?
- What is the landscape like there? Are there any famous mountains or rivers you could learn about? Are there any famous man-made landmarks you would go and visit? Take a trip using Google maps and fly above the continent. If you see something interesting then zoom in and have a closer look – I wonder what you might find! Imagine you have been to visit one of these places and make a postcard with a picture on the front and a description of your visit on the back.
- Can you find examples of famous artwork from this continent? Could you recreate some of it?
Are there any famous musicians from this continent? Have you heard any of their music before?
