WEEKLY MUSIC CALENDAR (2025-26)

What's this all about then?

This is the 4th year of the calendar and still at its simplest level the purpose of this calendar is to offer a wide-ranging selection of music: different styles, genres, origins, artists, historical periods and so on.

As part of an interesting and robust music curriculum, children need to hear and experience music and musical styles and artists that they may not otherwise have the opportunity to hear. The idea was to create a calendar of a song a day.

190 school days... 190 songs.

These songs could be used in whatever way the user thinks best – on entry to the classroom in the morning, as assembly music, as a calming session after breaktimes or lunchtimes, or as an introduction to a music lesson.

Many great artists from differing genres of music were listed and pared down to 40, a tough job, so yes – your favourite genre might be missing – sorry. Next, the songs! Not an easy task, not a bit! The intention was to ensure that there are 190+ songs, you may find some repeats – this is on purpose so children can hear the same songs on different styles (There aren't too many though!).

The key here is that the music selected is NOT perfect.

It is NOT necessarily the very BEST available choices.

It is NOT a perfect balance of artists, and YES, there are some amazing songs and artists missing!

There are many of you who may be disappointed with what has been left out – but there is always next year (and last year and the one before that AND the one before that!)

It is recognised there may be some argument over placing certain artists/songs in certain genres which some might consider wrong – sometimes they just had to be squeezed in!

A best attempt has been made to ensure that there is a diverse collection of musicians, singers, groups and bands – but there may well be gaps. Included are a range of male and female artists from around the world, from different cultures, nations and origins, nothing has been missed deliberately or due to prejudice. I have not spent time googling the gender identity or sexual orientation of artists, therefore if you feel this is an area I have neglected – again I apologise, it is unintentional.

If you wish to make amendments to any part of this calendar for your own use, please feel free to do so, but please cite the original source material.

Thank you – and enjoy!

Mike
