NEWSLETTER

It has been a brilliant week for sport in school this week. On Monday, our Y5/6 footballers played a fixture against Goldsborough's Y5/6s. They played brilliantly and came away with a resounding victory! Our cricketers represented school at the small schools' tournament on Wednesday of this week, alongside nine other teams. They were delighted to win their pool and finish third overall in the tournament- a fantastic achievement! Both teams represented our school so well and we are all very proud of them!

Headteacher Recruitment Process

The Federation Governing Board is delighted to announce that they were successful in appointing a Headteacher to lead Goldsborough and Sicklinghall from September following a comprehensive interview process on Monday and Tuesday of this week. Miss Zoe Pickard is currently Executive Assistant Headteacher at a Federation in Leeds and brings a wealth of teaching, leadership and federation experience to the role of Headteacher of our Federation.

Miss Pickard will be visiting our schools over the coming half term to meet pupils and staff and to familiarise herself with our systems and routines before September.
